MEMORANDUM FOR: Special Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs

SUBJECT : Recipients of Sensitive Information on Cuba

1. There is attached a list of those senior officials of the US Government outside of the Intelligence Community who are considered by the various members of the USIB to be those persons most likely to be required to give advice to the President concerning certain aspects of the Cuban problem. They have been nominated, therefore, to receive such information when and if it is obtained by the Intelligence Community.
